

29 April 2020

Charles Sturt University Research Project

To Whom it May Concern,

I am undertaking PhD research with Charles Sturt University, supervised by Dr Sam Bowker and Dr Susan Wood, and in my investigations have identified a gap in art history literature regarding Rudolf Steiner's impact on Australian artists, both modernist and contemporary. As an important figure in the history of education, Steiner also had ideas which continue to influence artists in Australia and across the globe.

Practicing Australian artists who have a connection to Steiner through their education or art practice are being invited to participate. Participation in the project would be limited to a single 60-minute interview conducted online.

If you are interested in participating please contact me, and I will be happy to forward you further information, including a consent form and detailed project description.

Yours faithfully,

Rebecca Humphries

PhD Candidate

School of Communication and Creative Industries

Charles Sturt University