

Out of Home and Into the World

Supporting Creative Engagement During Times of Change

Sandra Frain

Create Nourishing Soil and DIY Fertilizers

Sunday 10 October, 9:30am-10:30am

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUKBK>

Speaker: Sandra Frain
Biodynamic Gardening Expert and experienced Steiner Early Childhood Educator

What does it mean to: adjust the PH, increase the nitrogen, or create acidic or alkaline soil? Learn about easily created substances that can nourish your soil and receive a practical demonstration of the transformational qualities of fermentations, weeds, ashes, egg shells, basalt, rock dust, limestone, baking soda, Epsom salts, composts and more.

Lisa Devine

Life after Lockdown for our Teens

Wednesday 3 November, 7:30pm-8:30pm

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUKBL>

Speaker: Lisa Devine, School Chaplain

This session has a special teen focus – re-engaging young people with their world after lockdown. Off the screen and back into life! Children and young people need healthy engagement with the real world. As we move away from screen-based learning back to the classroom, how can we encourage social, environmental and digital hygiene in the home, regaining pre-lockdown balance?

Catherine Pilko

Supporting Healthy Play

Thursday 14 October, 7:30pm-8:30pm

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUKBU>

Speaker: Catherine Pilko
Senior Teacher and experienced Steiner Early Childhood Educator

Discover how to encourage creative expression and support healthy play. Learn how Glenaeon supports play and creativity in young children and how parents can bring this type of play into the home.

Ebba Bodame

Celebrating Christmas at Home

Wednesday 17 November, 7:30pm-8:30pm

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUKBQ>

Speaker: Ebba Bodame
Experienced Early Childhood Educator and celebrated storyteller

What joyous Christmas stories can we tell our children? Ebba will share her wonderful gift for storytelling and provide practical advice on preparing for, and celebrating the Christmas season in the home.

Evan Sanders

The Magic of Making Things

Wednesday 27 October, 7:30pm-8:30pm

<https://www.trybooking.com/BUKBH>

Speaker: Evan Sanders
Design and Technology Teacher and ICT Coordinator

How can children creatively engage with the environment through making? Evan will speak on the impact of making beautiful and useful things and how this can be supported both in the home and at school.

Parent Education
Term 4 2021

Glenaeon
Rudolf Steiner School

Meaningful Lives